

Bio:

Burn the Rez is a Rhode-Island based indie Alternative/Metal band, whose 2014 self-titled debut features dark, vocal melody & harmony, towering walls of guitar & orchestral strings, and intimate arrangements of cello, piano, & acoustic guitar. Influences include Red, Coldplay, Alice in Chains, Cold, and Deftones.

About us: We're a 2-man band/studio project, 100% self-produced – we write, compose, perform, record, mix, and master all elements of our music. Control freaks? Yes. Our story began 15 years earlier in the high-school metal band we formed together. We tirelessly practiced and gigged and had visions of rock stardom. Soon after high school ended, careers and families slowly took over, and by our early 20's we had let our musical aspirations fade into the background. But we never lost touch, never stopped writing, and after 10 years we finally decided to stop reminiscing and start recording an album, "Burn the Rez", released in 2014.

When we're not in the studio working on our second album due early 2015 (and recording the occasional heavy cover of a pop song), we're getting to know tons of great people in the Indie music community through Twitter (@burntherez) and Facebook (BurntheRez).
