

Transported back in time from our decadent future, post apocalyptic rock warriors, CROSSON, have arrived in the 21st century to save the future of Rock & Metal. Their quest... to 'Spread The Rock n Roll Disease!!'

Fusing melodic heavy rock and big harmonies with a tongue-in-cheek attitude, reminiscent of The Darkness, Steel Panther and KISS, CROSSON's brand of catchy rock anthems is enticing on their new EP "Spreading The Rock n Roll Disease"

Mixed by legendary producer Duane Baron (Ozzy Osbourne, Motley Crue,) and European metal producer extraordinaire Mikko Karmila (Nightwish, Edguy, Stratovarius) and mastered by U.S mastering legend Dave Donnelly (Aerosmith, KISS, Whitesnake) "this EP is a delight, full of catchy, infectious, anthemic, sing-it shout-it rock tunes" (Xavier Russell - Classic Rock Magazine AOR)

"Spreading the Rock 'n' Roll Disease is definitely one hell of an infectious EP" . "...this EP should be on everyone's 'guilty pleasure' list" (Mark Lloyd - Room Thirteen)

The first single "All About The Music" is an anthemic battle cry stating that anyone can achieve their dreams and when times get tough, the music can pull you through. The video sees our rock warriors being transported from their post apocalyptic world to the rooftops of metropolis performing their high energy, choreographed rock routine.

Nothing can prepare you for the visual onslaught CROSSON delivers in its live show. Numerous costume changes, blended with high- energy choreography, smoke, sirens, and catchy tunes makes the CROSSON live show a "seen- to- be- believed" entertaining experience.

Join the CROSSON revolution and start "Spreading The Rock N Roll Disease"!!!

"If you like the of idea of KISS and Motley Crue crossed with The Darkness and Steel Panther, you're gonna love CROSSON" (Xavier Russell - Classic Rock Magazine AOR)
