

The new Norwegian «psychedelic-electropica-dub-rock»-band Disaster In The Universe is on everybody's lips this spring after working with Empire Of The Sun's star producer Peter Mayes on their debut album, playing support for Crystal Fighters and getting tons of critical acclaim for their first full length release «Coconut Message» earlier this month. Ross Allen (Island Records UK) and Flora Wong (Dazed Digital) rated Disaster In The Universe to be the best concert they saw at the entire Øya Festival. Now the band is touring in Germany, and is likely to be one of Norway's finest music exports this year.
