

ENVIKTAS

Enviktas are a six piece Folk Metal band based in Newcastle NSW Australia.

The Music can best be described as a fusion of Traditional, World Folk music, Classical and contemporary Metal with an element of theatre when it comes to live performances. The band place a great deal of time and energy on the performance of their music and have earned a solid reputation for putting on a great show.

Since 2010 the band have played a number of supporting and headlining shows along side local and International bands.

The band released its debut EP in March 2014 after 2 years of writing and recording and are looking to tour mid year.
