

A biography :

The French band Gut-Scrapers was founded in 2008. The five guys from Nimes were brought together by their common wish to play live on stage and rock for what it's worth.

After two demos, the band released their debut album "Gimme Your Soul" on 20th December 2012. Together with the stylistic influences from Aerosmith, Slash or ac/dc, the band has cooked up a poisonous and rock'n'rolly cocktail of ten powerful songs, which will also be very impressive live on stage.

On this album there are some guest musicians, like Manu Livertout (Koritni, Manu Livertout Band, Sticky Sweet...) and Christophe Godin (Morglbl Trio, Gnô, 2G etc.).

Gut-Scrapers really love to play live and will lose no opportunity to do so. They are very keen on gaining experience and develop their own style, so they love to play under all conditions.

They were opener for bands like The Lords of Altamont, Crucified Barbara, The Deep End, Gno, Nightmare, M-Pire of Evil, Agressor, Sinsemilia, the Fatals Picards etc...

In 2013 Gut-Scrapers signed deals with Pure Steel Publishing and Brennus Records. Now they support the French Hard Rockers with our promotion for their album.
