

J.J. Crowne – Short Bio

J.J. Crowne is a Miami-based singer/songwriter/multi-instrumentalist whose musical styles range from folk to alt-country to acoustic ballads. His latest album (“J.J. Crowne”) was #1 for two weeks on the worldwide Roots Music Report Folk Internet Airplay Chart, and remained in their Top 10 for twelve weeks in the Fall of 2013; and his single “Only Time” stayed in the national Spins Tracking System Country Top 50 Radio Airplay Chart for over 2 months. New York Times Music Contributor Phil Sweetland calls the album “a passionate and timely musical and lyrical vision.” J.J.’s album and song “Toy Soldiers” were recently named Best Album/Song (Folk/Singer-Songwriter category) by the record industry executives of the Akademia Music Awards, Beverly Hills, CA.

Crowne started his professional music career, after attending the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, by composing and recording radio/TV jingles, themes and cues for clients including PBS, Fox TV and Univision TV. He opened shows in his hometown of Miami for acts as diverse as The Mavericks and Marilyn Manson during the early ‘90’s, and has produced and composed original songs for numerous bands, theatrical productions and singers in South Florida for the past 30 years.
