

Los BastardosFinlandeses

Forever the Desperado is #1! on Radio City Finland! The four beerdrinking hellraisers from Hellsinki have done it with their 5th album "Day of the dead". Don't be fooled by the title! In Mexico the day of the dead is a day of celebration and so is this album. From Smoking Dynamite to the title track to Last Call this album is a celebration of good hard rock'n'roll spiced with tequila and beer.

When the radio hit "Acapulco" from their previous album "Saved by Rock n Roll" became the official beer-drinking song of last summer these Finnish Bastards began to reach a wider audience. Now they are on a roll!

The Bastardos are a tight bunch of seasoned rockers who not only are long time friends but one hell of a band who've "done this and done that" very well for a long time. Since 2007 they have toured with Aerosmith and Motörhead and opened up for the likes of Lynyrd Skynyrd, Thin Lizzy, Deep Purple and Metallica. Four amigos flying the flag to Keep On Rocking!

Bryn " El Taff" Jones vocals and bass (Zook)

Olli " Don Osmo" Kykkänen gtr and voc. (Royal Tramps)

Ben "El Gringo" Granfelt lead gtr and voc. (Gringos Locos, Leningrad Cowboys, Wishbone Ash, BGB)

Twist Twist "El Grande" Erkinharju drums (Peer Gynt, Leningrad Cowboys)

Having immediately established a fan base with the bikers and the American car enthusiasts, their brand of hard rock became known as Motor Rock.

LBF have played the clubs and festivals around Scandinavia for many years and also toured and played festivals in France, Sweden, Latvia, Germany and the UK.

The band is currently recording their sixth album, from which the first single should be released in the spring 2014. The album is scheduled for release in the autumn.

Dig the albums and videos and check out the band live when ever you can! Make sure you've got a frosty one in your hand 'cos you'll be needing it!
