

Portraits by Candlelight

Biography

Portraits by Candlelight was formed in Lock Haven, Pennsylvania in 2011. The original lineup of the band was Mike Harrison on guitar, Kristin Ieraci on drums, Jess Walizer on keyboard, and Chuck Bungo on bass. They released their first album, "The Gorton's Fisherman From Hell" in 2011. The album made its way into the hands of world famous guitarist Michael Angelo Batio, who quickly wrote a review praising the album. The band started working on their next album, a rock opera called "London After Midnight" in late 2011. While working with vocalists Duste Walizer, James Vesey, and Jess Fisher, the album was finished after a year of work. The title track of the album would receive radio play. After spending some time playing concerts, Portraits by Candlelight began working on their third album, 'Welcome to Glove Mart'. This concept album would feature a wide variety of bizarre songs. It was finished and released in 2014. It is currently available on Amazon.com.

Current lineup:

Mike Harrison – Guitar

Kristin Ieraci – Drums

Jess Walizer – Keyboard

Nate Galmish – Bass

Duste Walizer – Vocals

Chuck Bungo – Additional vocals and guitar

Mike Trentacosta – Additional vocals

Kirstin Russell – Additional Vocals