

BIO: Patti Unruh and Aaron Straub make up the Power Composing Duo, RHYTHM OF MARS from Fayetteville, AR. They began composing in September of 2010 and knew immediately that they had a special musical connection. Patti is a life-time classical pianist who studied piano on college scholarships in the USA at the University of Arkansas and University of Oklahoma in the early 70's. Aaron is a virtuoso guitarist who has played with several successful bands in Northwest Arkansas over the past 10 years. Todd Frost is their new Drummer who joined them in 2013. They compose and perform unique Instrumentals in multi-genres such as Prog Rock, New Wave and Neo-Classical. They consider themselves mainly a "studio recording band" but they are now progressing to a live venue that will add some vocal tracks to their Instrumental repertoire. They hope some of their musical creations will eventually be chosen for FILM/TV Soundtracks. Their first CD, "Romancing The Snake" was released into the Instrumental Rock digital world on July 15, 2011 and has received rave reviews and a 5 STAR review from various Internet music sites. Their 2nd CD, "Beyond Dreams" was released in January, 2012 and has done very well on the charts. Their 3rd CD "Window Of Destiny" has had great reviews from Radio Talk shows, Jango, Facebook, ReverbNation and Twitter Fans and their title song recently won a Semi-Finalist Composition Award from Song Of The Year 2013 contest which now makes 5 Composition Awards they have received in all. Their music is now being played on various Internet and FM radio stations throughout the US and UK where they've been compared to such bands as Muse, Trans-Siberian Orchestra, Yanni and Pink Floyd.
